Beware of Fraud and Scams

FEMA

Fake FEMA Inspectors

Disaster scammers may pretend to be FEMA inspectors. Protect yourself by knowing the signs:

Check ID: Legitimate inspectors always display official photo credentials.

No Fees: FEMA never charges for inspections or make promises to get your application approved.

Protect Info: Inspectors will never ask for your bank details, credit card info or your 9-digit registration number.

STOP. VERIFY. REPORT.

Report suspicious activity to the DHS Office of Inspector General at oig.dhs.gov/hotline or email StopFEMAFraud@fema.dhs.gov.
