

UNDERSTANDING YOUR FEMA LETTER

If you applied for FEMA assistance you will receive a letter explaining if you are approved or if more information is needed.

If approved, your letter will explain:

- How much money you are receiving.

If additional information is needed, the letter will explain:

- The specific documents FEMA needs to process your application.
- Send FEMA information to support your application if the disaster caused more damage than what was recorded in your inspection. You must appeal FEMA's decision within 60 days.
